The best of our consumer portfolio

We have selected a small group of key devices from our consumer device range to provide even greater choice for your organisation.

Availability and accessories

As this is a consumer-focused portfolio, devices will be available for a shorter period of time compared to devices in our Enterprise range. We cannot guarantee when these devices will be discontinued or when a successor will become available. And although we provide an extensive range of extras for all our devices, with our consumer range we cannot guarantee the availability of compatible accessories or car kits.

For information on the terms of warranty for our devices, please see www.vodafone.co.uk/business/terms
