Summary of Conditions of Employment for Staff on Clinical Medical Grades holding NHS Honorary Speciality Registrar Status – grades ACN2, AMN2

The conditions of employment summarised below supersede all previous terms and conditions, including any local variations, covered under these headings. They apply to all staff in posts on grades ACN2 and AMN2.

Academic Freedom
If you hold a contract of employment with the University as a Professor, Reader, Senior Lecturer or Lecturer or are otherwise engaged in teaching, the provision of learning or research, your employment is subject to the principles of academic freedom as enshrined in the relevant Statutes, and the Ordinances and Regulations of the University. In particular, all such employees shall have freedom within the law to hold and express opinions, to question and test established ideas or received wisdom, develop and advance new ideas or innovative proposals and to present controversial or unpopular points of view without placing in jeopardy the appointments they hold or any entitlements or privileges they enjoy.

Probation Period
Your employment is subject to a one year probationary period from the date of your appointment. Exceptionally this probationary period may be extended as necessary for a specified period and purpose.

Increment date and progression within grade
Your increment will be determined on the basis of your previous service in the NHS training grades.

Part time staff
All rates quoted below apply pro rata for part time staff.

Annual Leave
The annual leave year runs from 1 January to 31 December. Your leave entitlement is 36 days per year, pro rata for part time staff.

Those employees who have Guaranteed Minimum Hours [GH] contracts will be informed at the outset of their employment about arrangements for their Annual Leave. Generally, employees with GH contracts will be paid an additional amount on top of their hourly rate of 18.1% for all hours worked to compensate them for the Annual Leave and Public
Holiday entitlement they would otherwise have received had they been working full time hours.

Entitlements can be calculated using the Annual Leave Calculator.

We shall not normally pay you in lieu of untaken holiday except on termination of employment. The amount of such payment in lieu shall be one day’s pay for each untaken day of your entitlement for the holiday year in which termination takes place and any untaken days permitted to be carried forward from the preceding holiday year.

If you have taken more holiday than your accrued entitlement at the date your employment terminates, we shall be entitled to deduct from any payments due to you, one day’s pay from each excess day.

If you are paid for working non-contractual overtime and/or for call-outs, you’ll receive an additional amount on top of your overtime/call-out pay to ensure your statutory holiday entitlement (28 days per year, pro rata for part-time) reflects your overtime/call-out earnings. This additional amount will be equal to 12.07% of the pay you receive for working non-contractual overtime and/or for call-outs.

University Public Holidays
In addition to annual leave entitlement, you are entitled to four Scottish public holidays (1 and 2 January and 25 and 26 December) per year, pro rata for part time staff. Where the days fall at the weekend, the public holidays will be determined annually by the University.

As above, Guaranteed Minimum Hours (GH) staff receive pay in lieu of public holidays.

Closure Days
As the University generally closes between Christmas and New Year, you will be required to use a number of days from your annual leave entitlement to cover this closure. You will be informed in advance if you are required to work on the days between the public holiday closure dates.

Sick Leave and Pay
The University’s Absence Management policy explains what you must do if you cannot attend work due to sickness or injury.
Your entitlement to occupational sick pay (OSP) is based on the amount of service you have attained on the first day of absence:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Length of service</th>
<th>Period of OSP</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>First three months of service:</td>
<td>Two weeks’ full pay, two weeks’ half pay</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>More than three and up to 12 months of service:</td>
<td>Two months’ full pay, two months’ half pay</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>More than 12 months and up to 24 months of service:</td>
<td>Three months’ full pay, three months’ half pay</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>More than 24 months and up to 36 months of service:</td>
<td>Four months’ full pay, four months’ half pay</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>More than 36 months of service:</td>
<td>Six months’ full pay, six months’ half pay</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Pension Scheme

All staff, except for those with Guaranteed Minimum Hours (GH) contracts, will be automatically enrolled into the Universities Superannuation Scheme (USS) with effect from their first day of employment. If you do not wish to remain a member of USS you will need to opt out.

On joining USS you will normally be opted into Pensions+² through which pension contributions are paid in a way that helps both staff and the University to make savings on National Insurance contributions, without negatively affecting pension scheme benefits or take home pay.

Guaranteed Minimum Hours (GH) staff can apply to join the Universities Superannuation Scheme (USS) by completing a Pension Scheme Application form (available from the University’s Pensions Team web pages).

If you are an GH member of staff and do not elect to join the scheme you will be automatically enrolled into USS if your earnings in either your first or any future month are deemed to be ‘qualifying earnings’ (equivalent to the HMRC monthly threshold above which earnings are taxable) and contributions will be deducted on all future earnings paid under this contract.

If you are automatically enrolled in the scheme but do not wish to remain a member of USS, you will need to complete an opt-out form.

¹ At the beginning of each period of sickness absence the number of days taken as paid sick leave in the previous 12 months is deducted from your entitlement in a year in order to determine the number of days’ sick pay entitlement remaining to you

² Pensions+ is a salary sacrifice scheme. Further information at: http://www.ed.ac.uk/schools-departments/finance/pensions/pensions-plus
All staff should note that if they decide NOT to remain in a pension scheme, their earnings will be assessed at 3 yearly intervals. If you are paid ‘qualifying earnings’ (equivalent to the HMRC monthly threshold above which earnings are taxable) the University will be required to automatically re-enrol you into the USS scheme as is required by the Pensions Act 2011.

Employees in receipt of an USS pension will not be eligible to re-join USS and will be automatically enrolled into the National Employment Savings Trust (NEST) if monthly earnings are deemed to be ‘qualifying earnings’ (equivalent to the HMRC monthly threshold above which your earnings are taxable).

If you are currently a member of Staff Benefits Scheme (SBS), Medical Research Council Pension Scheme (MRC), Scottish Teachers’ Superannuation Scheme (STSS) or Local Government Pensions Scheme (LGPS) and accept a new appointment to a UoE grade 6-10 job, you will have the opportunity to either transfer to USS for future benefits, or remain in your current scheme. Please note if you are currently a member of NEST and accept a new appointment to a UoE grade 6-10 job you will be required to join USS from the start date of your new grade.

Job Duties
You are employed to undertake such duties as are appropriate to your level of appointment. The University reserves the right to amend the role to take into account the changing needs of the business. You may from time to time be required to undertake additional or other duties as necessary to meet these needs.

Working Hours
The actual hours worked in any particular week may vary, but the norm over a period which is reasonable for the job in question will be 40 hours (or pro rata for part time staff). There are no fixed hours of work, to reflect the need for work to be directed in order to meet organisational priorities and fluctuating work requirements, and to permit flexibility where appropriate.

The number of hours to be worked in a week is contractual but the pattern of hours worked is subject to business needs. It may be necessary from time to time to vary the pattern of hours worked by staff. Due consultation will take place and individual requirements will be taken into account in making any changes. However, changes in working patterns can be brought about by giving four weeks’ notice of change.

Place of work and working abroad
You will be required to work from any of the University’s Edinburgh based campuses and/or offices and/or from an NHS organisation as applicable to your role. You may also be required to travel across and outside Edinburgh on University business. If your duties require you to work abroad, i.e. outside of the UK, for more than a month at a time, you will be provided with information on this before you leave the UK.
Ongoing right to work in the United Kingdom (UK)
Your employment is subject to your right to work in the UK. If you lose the right to do so for any reason, you will be unable to continue in your role and your employment with the University will come to an end immediately.

On-Call Availability Supplement
If you work in an area of the University which operates an on call rota (i.e. where there is a demonstrable need to ensure adequate out of hours cover for essential services and where it is essential to ensure that there is a response to the failure of any critical system or service) you will be invited to ‘opt-in’ to participate in the rota. In exceptional circumstances, where insufficient numbers of staff have ‘opted-in’ you may be required to join the rota. Further information on this is in ‘Arrangements for On-Call, Call-Out and Out of Hours Working policy’

Salary Payment
Annual salary is paid in 12 equal monthly payments by direct transfer to your bank or building society account, normally on the 28th of the month or on the preceding working day if the 28th falls on a weekend or UK bank holiday. If you start or leave us part way through the month, your pay including any contractual allowances for that month will be based on your start or leaving date and a daily rate of 1/365ths of your annual salary and any contractual payments.

Guaranteed Minimum Hours (GH) staff are paid one month in arrears.

Where hours worked are notified to Payroll by the 5th of the month, payments will be made on the 28th of that month or as described above.

Other Types of Leave and Pay
The University has a suite of generous ‘family friendly’ leave and pay policies, e.g. maternity leave, partner leave, shared parental leave, emergency time off for dependants leave, and ‘special leave’ provisions which can be found on the University’s HR webpages.

Other Benefits
The University is able to provide staff with access to a range of discounted services and goods. More information can be found on the Reward section of the University’s HR webpages.

Collective Agreements
The University recognises and works in partnership with three trade unions, University and College Union (UCU), UNISON and Unite. Collective agreements reached with these unions, individually or jointly, will have the effect of automatically varying your terms and conditions of employment. This applies whether or not you are a member of these trade unions.
Other Paid Employment
You must not take on additional paid work, including with the University of Edinburgh/ its subsidiaries or self-employment, which adversely affects your job performance, presents a conflict of interest, has an impact on health and safety or breaches the Working Time Regulations.

You are encouraged to make your line manager aware before accepting other paid work. If your line manager reasonably believes that you may have other employment that is having an adverse impact on your performance and/or wellbeing or could be a conflict of interest, you must, if asked, disclose that you have other employment.

The University of Edinburgh reserves the right to require you to give up or reduce your other employment, should this present a conflict of interest, adversely impact your performance or where the combined extent breaches the Working Time Regulations.

Notice by Member of Staff
If you intend to terminate your employment with the University, you are required to give one month’s notice if you have less than six months’ service and three month’s notice thereafter.

Notice by the University
If the University intends to terminate your employment you are entitled to receive one month’s notice if you have less than six months’ service and three months’ notice thereafter.

Right to pay in lieu of notice
The University reserves the right to make a payment in lieu of notice for all or part of your notice period rather than ask you to work your notice period. This applies whether notice to terminate your employment is given by you or the University. You will be compensated by a payment equivalent to the basic pay and any contractual allowances that you would have received had you worked to the end of notice period. This sum, less income tax and national insurance contributions, will be paid into your bank account.

Right to place you on ‘garden’ leave
The University reserves the right to ask you not to attend work for all or part of your notice period. This applies whether notice to terminate your employment is given by you or the University. It also reserves the right not to give you any work during this period, referred to as the garden leave period. If placed on garden leave, your contract of employment will remain in place until the end of your notice period and you will continue to be paid as normal.

Training
Your manager will let you know within two months of you taking up your role what training the University will provide and you must complete to fulfil your role. This will include compulsory on-line learning modules as well as face-to-face training courses and workshops. You should also take time to familiarise yourself with the training you need to undertake to comply with the University’s policies.
Employment Policies

Your attention is drawn to a full range of helpful and informative policies and practices that may relate to elements of your employment. These can be found via the HR Home Page at: www.ed.ac.uk/human-resources.

Disciplinary and Grievance Procedures

Copies of the disciplinary and grievance procedures, including appeals procedures, which pertain to your employment, are available on the HR website at: www.ed.ac.uk/human-resources/policies-guidance.

Right to Suspend

The University may suspend you from work on full pay should it need to investigate incidents or allegations of unacceptable behaviour or breach of University policy.

Equality and Diversity

The University of Edinburgh is committed to equality of opportunity for all its staff and students, and promotes a culture of inclusivity. It has a range of policies and procedures in place to provide a workplace that embraces diversity and is free from any potential bias. More details can be found via the Equality and Diversity Home Page at: www.ed.ac.uk/equality-diversity.

Health & Safety

The University has a duty to ensure, as far as is reasonably practicable, the health, safety and welfare at work of all employees. You are also under a duty, whilst at work, to take reasonable care for the health & safety of yourself and others and to comply with University policy and practice in this area. Full details can be found via the Health & Safety Home Page at: www.ed.ac.uk/health-safety.

Information Technology and Information Security

It is important that employees are aware of and comply with the various policies and practices with regard to the use of information technology and the security of information. This includes such areas as the internet, email, telephones and all computer systems. Full details can be found via the IS Home Page at: www.ed.ac.uk/information-services and the Information Security Home Page at www.ed.ac.uk/infosec.

Review

This document was revised in February 2010 to incorporate changes to public holidays and annual leave entitlement. It was revised again in June 2010 to incorporate a statement on Academic Freedom and ratified by CJCNC 17 June 2010. It was revised again in March 2011 to incorporate changes to retirement and to provide more detailed terms and conditions and ratified by CJCNC 16 March 2011. An agreed revision was made on 31 October 2012 to include a Privacy Notice for Employees. The document was revised again in July 2013 to incorporate changes to Pension Scheme (as a result of auto-enrolment legislation) and the Privacy Notice for Employees was updated.
This document was reviewed in April 2015 removing references to HTBN in favour of Guaranteed Hours Contracts, and ratified by CJCNC on 28 April 2015. Following contracting-out pensions changes, an update was made in May 2016. It was revised again in January 2017 to update the definition of Academic Freedom and broken web links. In October 2017, a clause on ‘other paid employment’ and the requirement to comply with information security policies were added and agreed at CJCNC. In December 2017, an update was agreed by CJCNC regarding holiday pay for non-contractual overtime/call-outs.

In May 2018, the paragraphs regarding Privacy Notice were removed to comply with GDPR regulations. In April 2020, paragraphs were added regarding closure days, place of work, ongoing right to work, collective agreements, training, pay in lieu of notice and garden leave, other paid leave and benefits to ensure compliance with new legislation, effective 6 April 2020, regarding written particulars of employment.

These summary terms and conditions will be subject to review as appropriate due to changes in legislation, statutory requirements or other agreed changes. In the absence of this, they will be reviewed by January 2021.
