

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH
School of History, Classics
& Archaeology

---

SEMINAR SERIES 2018

---

Edinburgh History of Medicine Group

---

Programme, Semesters 1 & 2

- 27 Sept Sophie Goggins (National Museum of Scotland)
'Prosthetics: From maker to user'
- 19 Oct Inaugural McCarthy Award for History of Medicine Research
17.00, free event
- 20 Mar Katie Birkwood (Royal College of Physicians, London)
'John Dee: Magic, medicine and the Tudor world'
- 2 Apr Dr Helen Bynum (St Andrews) and Dr Derek Sloan (University of St Andrews)
'Spitting blood: Tuberculosis, past and present'
- 11 Apr Dr Martin Moore (Exeter) and Professor Mark Strachan (Western General Hospital, Edinburgh)
'Sugar and spikes: Changing approaches to diabetes care'
- 8 May Professor John Henderson (University of London)
'Coping with plague: Public health and epidemics in Renaissance Italy'
- 5 June Dr Noelle Gallagher (Manchester)
'The nose knows: Syphilitic noses in eighteenth-century British literature and art'

---

More Information

<http://edin.ac/2cqHevW>

Wednesdays at 18.00, tickets are £3 on the door unless otherwise stated. Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh, 9 Queen Street, Edinburgh

