See our research centre web pages for further details – Centre for Creative-Relational Inquiry

First Thursday Seminar Series: 2019-20

The ‘First Thursday’ seminar series engages with innovative, creative and radical conversations about counselling and psychotherapy research and practice.

Please note the seminars taking place on 30 January and 30 April, i.e. the final week of the previous month. All seminars take place in Room 4.1, School of Health, Medical School (Doorway 6). The seminars all begin at 4.30pm and end at 5.45pm, after which we invite you to join us in continuing the discussions across the road at ‘Doctors’. No need to book in advance to attend these seminars.

October 3rd 2019
Phiona Stanley – “Fat girls hiking”: An Autoethnography of mental health and mobility justice

November 7th 2019
J. Karen Serra U. – Reflexivities as Affective Ways of Relating that Produce

December 5th 2019
Amanda Diserholt – Fatigue as resistance to the demands of late capitalism

January 30th 2020
Julian Manley – Social dreaming: putting Deleuzian philosophy into practice

March 5th 2020
Nini Fang – Feeling ‘out of place’ – A psychosocial exploration of cultural (dis)localities as an immigrant worker

April 2nd 2020
Theo Dijkman – Psychosynthesis: the existence of Self and the personality

April 30th 2020
Jess Erb and fellow members of The Bodies Collective – The body as a site for change: Implications for therapists and academics