

Food shopping guide

You can use this food shopping guide to help budget for your living costs while studying in Edinburgh. You'll find information about supermarkets, local shops and eating out within easy reach of the University's central area to help you make the right choices.

Top tips!

- Buying food on a weekly basis can keep costs down and avoid waste.
- Sharing food shopping with flatmates or friends can save time and money.
- Most supermarkets offer an online ordering and delivery service for a small charge.
- Just before supermarkets close they often offer discounts on foods that have a short life-span.
- Preparing fresh meals is cheaper and healthier than buying pre-prepared meals or take-away food.
- Frozen fruit and vegetables are just as healthy as fresh; they can be kept longer and are often cheaper too.
- Student discounts are often offered by restaurants and take-aways - always ask!
- Finding foods from around the world is possible at speciality food shops and many larger supermarkets.
- Trying local alternatives is a good option if you can't find the things you would normally buy.
