

The Edinburgh
School of Law

With support from The Alwaleed Centre
for the Study of Islam in the Contemporary World

Presents

Law, Politics and Religion Half-Day Symposium

With contributions from the leading academic experts:

Prof Christian Joppke
University of Bern

Dr Nasar Meer
Northumbria University

Prof Paul Weller
University of Derby

Author of Citizenship and Immigration

Author of Citizenship, Identity and the Politics of Multiculturalism

Author of
Religious Diversity in the UK

Introduced by Prof Zenon Bankowski (University of Edinburgh) and including a roundtable discussion chaired by Prof Hugh Goddard (Director, Alwaleed Centre)

Monday 9th September

2pm - 6pm

St Cecilia's Hall

To be immediately followed by a wine reception

Attendance is free but places are limited. To book:

<http://law-politics-and-religion.eventbrite.co.uk>

For further information contact Stefano Bonino at s.bonino@sms.ed.ac.uk

LAW, POLITICS AND RELIGION HALF-DAY SYMPOSIUM

University of Edinburgh – St Cecilia’s Hall – 9th September 2013

Timetable

2.00pm – 2.15pm	Registration and Coffee

2.15pm – 2.30pm	Welcome and Introduction – Prof Zenon Bankowski
2.30pm – 3.10pm	Prof Christian Joppke Islam, Morality and Liberal Law
3.10pm – 3.20pm	Questions and Answers Session
3.20pm – 4.00pm	Dr Nasar Meer Beyond 'Integration': Muslims and Citizenship in Britain
4.00pm – 4.10pm	Questions and Answers Session

4.10pm – 4.30pm	Coffee break

4.30pm – 5.10pm	Prof Paul Weller Continuity and Change in Unfair Treatment on the Basis of Religion and Belief, 2000-2010: Findings from England and Wales and Implications for Britain and Beyond
5.10pm – 5.20pm	Questions and Answers Session
5.20pm – 5.50pm	Roundtable Discussion chaired by Prof Hugh Goddard
5.50pm – 6.00pm	Closing Remarks – Prof Hugh Goddard

6.00pm – 7.00pm	Wine Reception