

OLD MEDICAL SCHOOL BUILDING

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH

The Medical School is located within what is referred to as the Central Area South Campus of Edinburgh University and is extremely well served by bus. The building is within approx one mile of the city centre and within 1 mile of the main student residences at Pollock Halls.

The nearest railway line is at Waverley Station in the city centre.

The Medical School Buildings main is off Teviot Place and through the imposing arched entrance.

There are seven entrance doorways off the car park, each doorway giving access to differing departments of medical expertise and teaching.

William Robertson Building (Doorway 4):

There is a wide, shallow ramp leading to this doorway. The doorway leads into, a wide circulation corridor, through which you can also gain access to the Chrystal MacMillan Building.

The Old Medical School building is located at Number 8 on the map below.
