SERVICE LEVEL AGREEMENT

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this Service Level Agreement is to detail the contractual day to day relationship and procedures between Pertemps and The University of Edinburgh in a format, which is easy for both parties to understand and refer to on an on-going basis. The document also sets out the positive obligations, which both parties will undertake in order to ensure the smooth operation of the contract for mutual benefit.

These terms apply to all new bookings that start from 15th February 2016.

This agreement will be considered a working document and can form a basis for formal review and further enhancement and clarification should the need arise.

Should changes be agreed at any formal review meeting, and implemented, this document should be amended and version control completed:

Version reference	Name	Date	Reference number of changes made
6.8	C Hennessy	February 2016	Finalised SLA
6.9	C Hennessy	28 May 2016	Removed reference to providing cost centre details at point of booking.

TYPE OF RELATIONSHIP

University of Edinburgh has engaged Pertemps hereafter referred to as <the supplier> for the provision of Administrative Staff.

Both parties see the relationship as a partnership. This agreement forms a basis upon which both parties can work together to achieve an efficient service for resourcing temporary workers at the Institution.

The Service Level Agreement represents the positive obligations which both parties shall action in order to deliver a mutually beneficial partnership that supports University of Edinburgh objectives and activities.

AGREEMENT FORM

This Service Level Agreement defines the supply relationship between University of Edinburgh and <The Supplier> in their appointment as a provider under the Framework Agreement Number: SP-13-017

This document is intended to be read in conjunction with the Terms & Conditions of the main framework terms and conditions a copy of which can be obtained from Stuart McLean, Purchasing or HR Resourcing.

SERVICE CHARTER

Current Ordering

Please refer to Appendix 1 for detail on ordering workflow.

Prior to an official order form being generated by the hirer; the hirer will call the agency to discuss the requirement, type of job role and likely start and end dates.

University of Edinburgh to provide Purchase order form to: scottishprocurement@pertemps.co.uk > using either; eFinancial or PECOS (eProcurement) systems. The AWR form as shown in (Appendix 2) will accompany all purchase orders raised. The purchase order number should be provided when placing the booking otherwise the order may not be accepted. In the absence of a PO number, invoices will be issued to the person that requested the service.

At time of booking line managers will give an indication as to the start date required and expected length of the booking along with a review schedule.

<The Supplier> can expect University of Edinburgh will complete obligations outlined below when ordering & deploying workers:

- fully complete the temporary booking process agreed in Appendix 1
- specify the estimated length of the assignment. If there is no defined end date, then renewal dates should be specified so that <The Supplier> can get in contact to see if the assignment is to be extended
- provide clearly written job details for new bookings and/or work plan for better understanding – Ref: Job Catalogue (Appendix four)
- to be responsible for the control supervision and direction of the temporary workers whilst on University of Edinburgh premises
- make provision of appropriate personal protective equipment (PPE) through locally agreed systems with <The Supplier> University of Edinburgh will administer these requirements if required
- On receipt of rate of pay calculation as noted below*, the University will use this to populate PECOS system to facilitate its eProcurement catalogue and provide as an internal reference for hirers

University of Edinburgh can expect <The Supplier> to complete the following obligations:

- provide key contacts as outlined in the Account Management Section of the SLA
- meet locally agreed key performance indicators for the timely fulfilment of the service
- provide monthly management information in format agreed with University of Edinburgh
- responsible for Temporary Worker welfare i.e. payroll, tax, NI contributions, escalation process and Working Time Regulations
- Agency Workers are employed by <The Supplier> and as such responsibility for auto-enrolment to a pension scheme under the Pensions Act 2008 is the full responsibility of <The Supplier>.
- provide Agency Worker Directive (AWD) related reports as required by the University of Edinburgh

- Provide the University with a fixed rate per job role per grade/increment level based on the Pay rate to worker, hourly rates as quoted in Appendix 4 and WTR cost, NI cost and agency fee (all excluding VAT)*

Pre booking

University of Edinburgh can expect that <The Supplier> will complete the following obligations for Staff Qualification:

Referencing

- fully interview, reference and skill test all staff to Contract Standards outlined or as specified on the order
- references will be completed prior to the worker starting their assignment. Where possible, these references will cover two previous employment periods within the last three years or be supplemented by a personal reference from a person of responsibility or trust if one of the work references cannot be sought
- if previously a UoE temp or employee, a reference should be obtained from local HR team before appointment to establish whether appointment to the assignment is appropriate

Additional Checks

- UKVI Eligibility to work check
- Disclosure / Protection of Vulnerable Groups (PVG) checks if required Reference check on

Testing & Deployment

- Ensure workers skills have been assessed to specified minimum standards prior to starting their assignment e.g. Word, PowerPoint, Numeracy & Literacy
- Proactively gather information to accurately assess the skills needed for the booking
- Issue each temporary worker with the relevant site's briefing guide pack and ensure each temporary worker understands the nature of the work involved by providing full job details prior to commencement of their assignment.
- To confirm delivery of the correct calibre and quantity of workers to the premises on commencement date.

Additional Vetting

Where it is a requirement of the role, an Enhanced Disclosure Declaration / PVG for each candidate undertaking such an assignment must be produced by the candidate. This requirement will be an explicit part of the job description and detailed in the booking form.

Rate of pay

Full details of the University's rate of pay which applies to this agreement can be found in the Job Catalogue in Appendix 4

If an AW works on a public holiday, when the university is closed, the rate of pay for that day is multiplied by 1.5, as the comparator rate. Any AW who has less than 12 weeks accumulative service will be paid at the client's discretion

Expectations

University of Edinburgh can expect that <The Supplier> will:

- Develop the Service level Agreement through a continuous improvement programme via the agreed contract management meetings and to develop further e-Procurement and improvements to ordering process.

Temporary to Permanent Vacancies

University of Edinburgh can expect <The Supplier> to:

- Provide Temporary to Permanent Services upon request and relevant order form, from the Institution.
- Charge for services in accordance with the pricing schedule of this agreement
- Where a temporary worker of the supplier is employed to a permanent or fixed-term post by the University, following an external recruitment competition, the supplier will not be entitled to charge a temporary to permanent fee, providing the worker has been assigned to the University for at least 12 weeks.
- A fee will however be payable to the supplier if the temporary worker has been assigned to the University for less than 12 weeks, and/or the individual was appointed via an internally advertised post that the temporary worker would otherwise have not seen or been eligible to apply for if they had not been introduced by the supplier.

The following formula will be used to calculate any temporary to permanent fees:

- Administer all pay, PAYE, WTR and NI contributions.
- To ensure that each worker is legally entitled to work in the U.K.
- Raise invoices in accordance with locally agreed parameters outlined in appendix 7
- Manage and issue service evaluation questionnaires to individuals noted in this SLA.
- Where appropriate administer the supply of PPE equipment to its staff in support of University of Edinburgh.
- <The Supplier> shall work in partnership with University of Edinburgh to maximise value for the provision of the Services and make recommendations to University of Edinburgh to enable savings to be made.
- Providing accurate reporting to University HR Services, to ensure effective management of AWR aspects of agreement
- Providing accurate performance reporting to central HR and Procurement, to ensure effective performance aspects of agreement
- If previously a UoE temp or employee, contact will be made with the local College/Unit/Group HR team to ascertain whether appointment to the assignment is appropriate or not.
- Ensure that any switches in assignments within a school are notified to local HR teams, where this information is known to Pertemps.

UNIVERSITY OF EDINBURGH OBLIGATIONS

- Procure all temporary staff related to LOT A from <The Supplier> in the first instance.
- To inform <The Supplier> any temporary workers to be terminated from their assignment, clearly stating reasons.
- To make temporary workers familiar with any equipment to be operated.
- Ensure that temporary workers are under the control, supervision and direction of the University whilst on assignment.
- Inform <The Supplier> of any breaches of discipline or standard of work issues whereupon it will be the responsibility of <The Supplier> to take the appropriate action.
- To raise issues & queries or complaints through the process outlined in appendix 6
- To provide payroll information including all overtime upon completion of assignment or weekly basis as appropriate.
- To ensure timely notification to <The Supplier> Limited of all accidents involving <The Supplier> Limited temporary staff.
- The University will notify the supplier any changes to its standard rates of pay which impact on this the job roles in the agreement, calculators and e-Procurement catalogues.
- The Parties acknowledge that the Agency Workers Regulations 2010 ("AWR") may apply to the temporary workers engaged by the University under this Agreement, and as a result
- The University shall be responsible for compliance with the Day 1 Rights in accordance with Regulations 12 and 13 of AWR.
- The University shall provide <The Supplier> with accurate and comprehensive "Comparator" information as defined under AWR with specific reference to Regulation 5.(2) and 6 of the regulations, to enable <The Supplier> to comply with its obligations under AWR.
- On completion of the Qualifying Period, as defined in the AWR, by a temporary worker <The Supplier> shall assess, based on the information provided by the University, the impact of the Comparator information on the supply of the temporary worker and shall advise the University of any change to the fees or terms and conditions applicable to the temporary worker's assignment and the effective date of the change.
- The University will promptly advise <The Supplier> of any changes to comparator information.
- The University shall promptly notify <The Supplier> of any claims or complaints made by a temporary worker in connection with AWR, and shall supply <The Supplier> with such information that <The Supplier> reasonably requires in order to comply with its obligations under AWR in connection with any claim or complaint.
- Local College/Unit/Group HR teams to engage with Pertemps when contact is made to ascertain whether appointment of a former UoE Temp or Employee to the assignment is appropriate or not.
- Allow the time for key contacts to meet with local staff where agreed.

APPENDIX ONE- BOOKING PROCESS (INTERIM PENDING FURTHER PECOS DEVELOPMENT)

BOOKING PROCESS

If assignment length is not clear a realistic review day should be agreed.

1. The process is initiated by a call (preferably), PECOS, Electronic Sourcing Solution (ESS) or by email from the local hirers to the suppliers to outline the requirement. This initial contact should include:
 - Job profile, grade and pay and charge rate per hour (reference UoE Job Catalogue)
 - Start date and (approximate) duration of assignment
 - Name of hiring manager
 - Location of assignment
2. The local hirer completes Agency Worker Request Form (AWRF) with all details as in appendix two, including purchase order number¹.
3. The form is then sent to the Supplier, who should only accept the booking if fully completed with all the relevant information and authorisation.
4. The Supplier will then contact the local hirer, after following agreed process, with details
5. If the agency cannot fulfil the requirement either based on skills/worker available or in the time frame required. The Hiring manager should then seek the 2nd rank supplier from the framework via central HR contact as detailed earlier in this SLA.
6. Once the AW is in place the supplier will invoice the hiring manager on a weekly basis and in arrears, detailing of number of hours worked per week and charge rate plus VAT, as agreed on AWRF.

PECOS BOOKING PROCESS

1. The University of Edinburgh's PECOS system is currently utilised by some departments.
2. In this case the AWR form in Appendix 2 WILL be provided either separately to match PECOS order or as an attachment to the PECOS order itself
3. The job grade and increment detail as per Appendix 4 will be provided by the University of Edinburgh.
4. The order will be posted automatically to scottishprocurement@pertemps.co.uk

EPROCUREMENT (PECOS)

The generation of purchase orders is mainly via the Universities "eFinancials" system however, The University of Edinburgh's PECOS system is utilised by some hirers and we are seeking to widen its use, suppliers should provide, working with the University of Edinburgh's e-Procurement team, a csv (Excel) file listing all job roles as in Appendix 4, the total cost (including NI, WTR, and agency fee all not inclusive of VAT) per incremental point.

¹ In the absence of a PO number, invoices will be issued to the person that requested the services.

The job grade and increment detail as per Appendix 4 will be provided by the University of Edinburgh.

The supplier will agree to work with the university to analyse purchasing routes with an opportunity to improve on e-procurement where there is a benefit in invoice payment speed, ease of use for buyer, improved accuracy of invoices against purchase orders.

The supplier should provide, working with the University of Edinburgh's e-Procurement team, a csv (Excel) file listing all job roles as in Appendix 4, the total cost (including NI, WTR, and agency fee all not inclusive of VAT) per incremental point.

The detail required to populate our PECOS catalogue will be an immediate requirement which must be completed and made live prior to agreement start date.

The embedded file on Appendix Four will be used:

1. As a price reference for eFinancial users
2. Will be extracted to populate PECOS system.

We are seeking to adopt PECOS as the standard mechanism for raising Purchase Orders not raised in Accommodations Saffron system during the duration of this agreement
