at Edinburgh

Top
50[†]

We're consistently ranked one of the top 50 universities in the world. We're 20th in the 2020 QS World University Rankings.

4TH

We're ranked fourth in the UK for research power, based on the 2014 Research Excellence Framework.†

1ST

Edinburgh is ranked first for nursing in the UK in the Guardian University League tables 2020.

Developed with funding from the RCN Foundation and in partnership with the charity SameYou, this cutting-edge, fully-funded programme will equip registered nurses working in neurological rehabilitation with the resources and skills to develop person-centred practice in the area of neurological care and rehabilitation of adults.

The Programme

The aim of this programme is to equip registered nurses working in neurological rehabilitation, through education and reflection on their own practice, with the skills and resources to develop person-centred, partnership-focused practice in the area of neurological care and rehabilitation of adults.

Central to the programme is a truly holistic care-based approach, where we focus on the emotional, physical, cognitive, mental well-being and social needs of the individual, as well as those of their families and carers.

We work with international clinical partners in the field with an interdisciplinary approach that focuses on the mind and the body.

A particular emphasis will be placed on the rehabilitation of people aged 18-40 - a relatively neglected area.
