

Coffee 08-09

Psycholinguistics Coffee is an informal meeting of psycholinguists at the University of Edinburgh. We meet each week for coffee and biscuits and an informal talk.

Time: Every Wednesday, 11.30am - 1pm

Talks normally start at 12pm (days marked with * talks start at 11.30am)

Location: S38, Psychology, 7 George Square

Talk schedule (semester 2)

2007-2008	Speaker	Title
Wed 7th Jan	Claudine Raffray	Priming the interpretation of quantifier scope relations
Wed 14th Jan	Michael Schnadt	Lexical influences on disfluency production (Viva talk)
*Wed 28th Jan	Patrick Sturt	Does the structure of mathematical expressions prime relative clause attachment?
*Wed 11th Feb	Annette Camilla Sjrurp	The process of translating metaphors: an analysis of the processes and behaviours of the translator when translating metaphors
Wed 18th Feb	Moreno Coco	The Impact of Visual Information on Reference Assignment in Sentence Production
Wed 25th Feb	Holly Branigan	Syntactic alignment in autistic and typically-developing children's dialogue
Wed 4th March	Suzy Moat	Does Dell (1986)'s model of word pair production really work?
*Wed 25th March	Elena Hoicka	Say the Wrong Thing: Toddlers Joke with Jokers, but Correct Foreigners.
Wed 1st April	Richard Shillcock	Modelling reading: Principles and future directions
Wed 8th April		No coffee
Wed 15th April	Paul Brocklehurst	Lexical bias and the phonological similarity effect in inner speech
Wed 3rd June	Zhenguang Cai (Garry)	Do speakers treat Mandarin and Cantonese as languages or dialects?

Talk schedule (semester 1)

2007-	Speaker	Title

2008
Wed 24th Sep	Organisational meeting
Wed 1st Oct	Manon Jones	Elucidating the component processes involved in dyslexic and non-dyslexic reading fluency: Evidence from eye-tracking. (abstract [http://www.psy.ed.ac.uk/people/msantest/Psyling%20Coffee%2008-09/Manon%20Jones.doc/download])
Wed 8th Oct	Paul Brocklehurst	Exploring the relationships between perfectionism, speech monitoring and disfluency in the speech of people who do and do not stutter
Wed 15th Oct	Morag Donaldson	Children's production and comprehension of cohesive devices
*Wed 22nd Oct	Martin Corley and Ian Finlayson	Disfluency and audience design: a possibly interesting null result
*Wed 29th Oct	Monique Lamers	Getting the arguments right: the interplay between verb argument structure and word order preferences in comprehension and production (abstract [http://www.psy.ed.ac.uk/people/msantest/Psycoling%20Coffe/Lamers%20Psyling%20coffee.doc/download])
Wed 5th Nov	Zhenguang Cai	Semantic interpretation in verb-phrase ellipsis processing: Evidence from syntactic priming (abstract [http://www.psy.ed.ac.uk/people/msantest/Psyling%20Coffee%2008-09/Cai%20Psyling%20coffee.doc/download])
Wed 12th Nov		Informal chat and coffee
Wed 19th Nov	Patrick Sturt	The relation between reading time and misinterpretation
Wed 26th Nov	Joanna Brooks	Left Ear versus Right Ear: Evidence for a representational bias in an auditory spatial memory task.
Wed 3rd Dec	Elena Hoicka	The Acoustic Cues of Humorous Communicative Intentions in Parent-Child Interactions
*Wed 10th Dec	Antonella Sorace	Psycholinguistic signatures of gradient auxiliary selection in Italian and German
*Wed 17th Dec	Richard Shillcock	Adaptive binocular fixation disparities in reading and non-reading tasks

Previous talks: Psycholinguistics Coffee 2007-2008

[http://www.psy.ed.ac.uk/events/research_seminars/psyling_coffee/previous/document_view]

Mailing List:

Information about the Psycholinguistics Coffee meetings is currently sent out to the Psycholinguistics lab mailing list.

If you would like to be added to the list, please mail Susannah Moat <h.s.moat@sms.ed.ac.uk>.

Organiser:

Mikel Santesteban Insausti

Email:

<msantesteban@ed.ac.uk>