

Decision Making Chart for Starting/ Restarting Research and Research-Related Activities* with Human Participants on the University Campus (C-19)

*Research-related activities includes public engagement and knowledge exchange

There may be a range of justifiable reasons but these must be considered in the context of the risk to benefits ratio, and avoiding substantially increasing the background risk level.