

Scots@Ed Programme

University of Edinburgh

25 January 2020

Symposium Opening

9.15 – 9.45 | Registration and Reception

Part 1

9.45 – 10.00 | Opening Address and Welcome

10.00 – 10.45 | Plenary Speaker:
Joanna Kopaczyk, University of Glasgow
Users, uses, and whether we should care: My vision for Scots

10.45 – 11.00 | Break

11.00 – 11.20 | Presentations:
Claire Needler, University of Aberdeen
A Wee Bit of a Rebel Thing? – Scots Language Teaching in Schools

11.20 – 11.40 | Bruce Eunson, Scots Language Co-ordinator with Education Scotland
Scots Language in Primary school: examples and discussion

11.40 – 12.00 | Laura Green, Education officer for the Scots Language Centre
Scots in Secondary schools - Qualifications, Resources and Impact

12.00 – 13.00 | Lunch

13.00 | Presentations resume:

Part 2

13.00 – 13.20 | Dawn Leslie, University of Aberdeen
In Search of 'The Doric' - investigating perceptions of North-East speech from the inside

13.20 – 13.40	E Jamieson, University of Edinburgh Introducing the Scots Syntax Atlas
13.40 – 14.00	Warren Maguire, University of Edinburgh Mapping Scots Pronunciations
14.00 – 14.20	Jack Capener, 'Oor Vyce' Campaigning for a Scots Language Act: Translating Linguistic Renaissance into Political Action
14.20 – 15.00	Coffee Break
15.00 – 16.30	Panel Discussion: Jill Haywood, Sam Best, Claire Needler, Joanna Kopaczyk
16.30 – 16.45	Closing Words