Who is your current employer and what do they do?
School of Divinity, TCA College in Singapore
This is a tertiary institution that offers undergraduate and graduate programs in theology, counselling and leadership.

What is your job title and what does the job entail?
Lecturer
I teach students subjects related to the New and Old Testaments, as well as biblical Greek.

How did you achieve your current position?
While I was in the third year of PhD program in New College, I was introduced by a friend to TCA College I am with now. The college offered me a lecturer position upon the completion of my PhD studies, and also provided some financial support for my last year of studies in Edinburgh.

How do you feel you have used the skills and/or knowledge developed during your research degree in your career to date?
What I have learnt at New College was all relevant for my career as a lecturer. This includes content based knowledge, research skills, writing and teaching skills, as well as networking skills. Since my graduation I have continued to do use these skills daily as I teach and prepare for lessons. The exposure to international students from all over the world in Edinburgh has also encouraged me to network with people I meet.
