

- THE LISTENING SERVICE operates through the University Chaplaincy, for students or staff who want to touch base on any concerns or anxieties, or are looking for a timely or purposeful conversation. Conversations can be held in a variety of places, and could be over coffee or a walk.
- How to get in touch:
Drop in at the Chaplaincy Centre in Bristo Square (next to the EUSA shop), where the Receptionist will be able to direct you.
Or, email Chaplaincy@ed.ac.uk
Or, telephone 0131 6502595
- Dis-mything:
You don't have to be religious to use the Chaplaincy.
The Chaplaincy is not only for students; it's for staff too.
