

Email not displaying correctly?
View it in your browser.

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH
School of Economics

School of Economics Student Newsletter

Welcome to the School of Economics Student Newsletter

10 October 2013

Lots of careers events in this edition

In this issue

- Frontier Economics - Careers Advice, Thursday 10th Oct at 6pm
- Deutsche Bank - DB3D Event London
- AllAboutCareers - Economics Employability Guide
- Shell has launched a new global student competition
- BP Edinburgh Business Weekend

Frontier Economics - Careers Advice, Thursday 10th Oct at 6pm

Frontier Economics is a microeconomic consultancy with 5 offices in Europe – London, Dublin, Cologne, Brussels and Madrid.

We will be coming to Edinburgh University on Thursday 10th October to give an employer presentation and a case study skills session. The event is being held at Chrystal Macmillan, Seminar Room 5, Syndicate Room from 6pm. We will be giving an overview of what economic consulting is and share the type of work and advice that we provide at Frontier. We will also go through, step by step, one of our interview case studies giving you insights with hints and tips on how to answer these questions in an interview.

As some background, Frontier Economics one of the largest economic consultancies in Europe with around 120 Economists in Europe. We work on competition cases, strategy, policy design and regulatory economics. Using core insights from microeconomic theory and quantitative techniques to deliver tailor-made advice to businesses, regulators and policy-makers we support our clients on some of the most interesting, topical and high-profile economic issues around today. We apply our economic expertise to unpick markets, organisations and policies, and find practical recommendations. We encourage consultants to explore different approaches to solving economic problems, to be pioneers in new areas of work and to take the initiative in all aspects of the Company's development. Our culture is open-minded, friendly and non-hierarchical. Our website is www.frontier-economics.com where you can get more information on the work we do and the clients we work for.

We recruit economic students and have a minimum of 10 Analyst vacancies available and these positions are available to start anytime during the year. When working as an Analyst you will experience working across all of our practice areas. We also have internships for economics students either short term at 8-12 weeks and long term from 6-12 months. Internships can start any time in the year.

Deutsche Bank - DB3D Event London

Come and see our DB3D event and discover some new perspectives on investment banking and your future career.

Deutsche Bank is a huge organization. We're one of the most esteemed names in global finance with a history stretching back to 1870. Since that time, we've been at the heart of some of the most important developments in investment banking. Join us for our DB3D event, to see some of the key sides to what we do and – more importantly – the agile minds that do it.

Date: Monday 28th October

Time: 12.00pm – 5.00pm

Venue: Deutsche Bank Office - Winchester House, 1 Great Winchester Street, London

For more information and to register to attend, please visit registration.db.com/DB3D_2013 by 17th October.

Discover something different at db.com/careers/uk

AllAboutCareers - Economics Employability Guide

Confused about what to do with your degree once you've finished studying? AllAboutCareers.com have released a helpful guide to help you explore your specific options, and plan effectively.

It can be found by clicking here: <http://bit.ly/AllAboutCareers>

Shell has launched a new global student competition

Shell Ideas360 is run by Shell International Limited, and invites undergraduate and Masters students – of any degree discipline – to develop game-changing ideas for tackling Energy, Water and Food issues.

It's an exciting opportunity for students to discover more about innovation at Shell, and participate in a competition that will help to develop their skills – as well as offer them the chance to win a National Geographic Expedition.

Please visit the website (www.shellideas360.com) to find out more information.

BP Edinburgh Business Weekend

Heriot-Watt University Economics Society are inviting penultimate and final year students from across Europe to take part in the Edinburgh Business Weekend, this year scheduled for 8 – 10 November 2013. They are looking for ambitious teams of 4 with a good mix of business, finance and technical skills to join them at this year's competition. Successful applicants' CVs are shared directly with BP's campus recruitment team.

The Friday evening will include speeches from Rt. Hon Alistair Darling (former Chancellor of the Exchequer) and Trevor Garlick (Regional President of BP North Sea).

The Saturday will allow teams to compete in front of senior BP judges, from both recruitment and commercial operations. Competitors will be able to network with industry experts and BP representatives in an informal environment, which culminates in a gala dinner and a prize giving with 1st place receiving £1000.

Teams can expect hotel accommodation in the centre of Edinburgh and food provided throughout the weekend.

Apply at:

<https://adobeformscentral.com/?f=VPupXV%2AuEZvMd-4aEK2aGw>

For a look at last year's event:

www.ebw2012.com

Contact them either through Facebook or at hwueconomics@gmail.com

Contact us

School of Economics
Tel: +44 (0)131 650 8362
Email: study.economics@ed.ac.uk

Related links

School homepage
About the School
Current Students homepage

Copyright © 2013 The University of Edinburgh, All rights reserved.
We send this newsletter to students belonging to the School of Economics

The University of Edinburgh
Old College
South Bridge
Edinburgh, Lothian EH8 9YL
United Kingdom

Add us to your address book

The University of Edinburgh is a charitable body, registered in Scotland, with registration number SC005336.
unsubscribe from this list | update subscription preferences | view email in browser