

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH
School of Economics

School of Economics Student Newsletter

Welcome to the School of Economics Student Newsletter

24 October 2013

The trees are turning red - autumn is on its way.

The clocks go back this weekend so we get an extra hour in bed!

In this issue

- Summer internship opportunity with Gazprom plus a week in their Singapore office
- The Edinburgh Award
- Economic Analysts wanted for Ofcom - the communications regulator

Summer internship opportunity with Gazprom plus a week in their Singapore office

If you want to establish yourself as one of the most employable undergraduates in the country then enter for the Mathematics, Economics and Finance Undergraduate of the Year

Award at <http://undergraduateoftheyear.com/maths> (if the link doesn't work, copy and paste it into your browser).

The prize is a summer internship with Gazprom Marketing & Trading's global HQ in London plus a week's placement in their Singapore office! Open to penultimate and final years studying maths, finance, economics and business management related degrees.

All 10 finalists for each award gain great visibility in the market by attending the illustrious award ceremony in Canary Wharf on 25th April 2014.

Read about all of our 2013 winners at <http://undergraduateoftheyear.com/winners/2013>

Deadline is 31st January 2014; however APPLY NOW as employers are pre-screening applicants for their graduate programmes.

For more information please follow the link above or email Lilly Quinn at lilly.quinn@targetjobs.co.uk

The Edinburgh Award

EUSA are excited to launch a new Edinburgh Award focused on global citizenship which is designed to recognise students who play an active role in empowering others to feel a part of and understand their place in a community of global citizens.

As you know, the Edinburgh Award rewards students for taking part in activities alongside their studies like volunteering, part-time work, and getting involved in the University community. Award activities - such as face-to-face sessions and online reflection - wrap around these activities, helping students make the most of these meaningful experiences and giving them recognition for their involvement.

Anyone successfully completing the Edinburgh Award will receive both a certificate of recognition from the University and an entry on their Higher Education Achievement Report.

You can read more about the award here

- <http://www.eusa.ed.ac.uk/getinvolved/eusaglobal/whatisit/edinburghaward/>.

Apparently, the deadline for applying has passed but if you are keen to be a part of the first session on 29th October, please email johanna.holtan@eusa.ed.ac.uk

Economic Analysts wanted for Ofcom - the communications regulator

Are you studying for a degree in Economics? Are you interested in micro economics and in applying your knowledge in the workplace? Ofcom is looking for graduate economists to join them as Economic Analysts...

| | |
|---------------|--|
| Employer: | Ofcom |
| Position: | Economics Graduate Scheme |
| Industry: | Communications Regulation |
| Location: | London, UK |
| Salary: | £27k+ |
| How to apply: | Send your CV asap to students@sanctuarysearch.com quoting DEPT |
| Start Date: | Autumn 2014 |
| Deadline: | 8 th November 2013 |

Ofcom is the independent regulator and competition authority for the UK communications industries. They regulate the TV and radio sectors, fixed line telecoms, mobiles, postal services, plus the airwaves over which wireless devices operate.

Economists play a central role in setting Ofcom's strategic direction, developing and applying regulatory policy, promoting competition and carrying out market investigations. They apply advanced economic thinking to complex problems in a range of dynamic, high-profile markets which are of considerable importance to the UK economy. As one of their team of highly-skilled economists you will advise on economic issues across the range of Ofcom activity in the telecommunications and broadcasting sectors and in management of the radio spectrum.

Have you excellent academics and an economics degree? Are you interested in micro-economics, regulation, competition or industrial organisation? Ofcom are looking for excellent communicators who can ably apply what they have learnt in their economics degrees.

If this is you, or someone you know, please get in touch. Please send CVs to students@sanctuarysearch.com as soon as possible, with a note detailing your particular interest in this unusual economist position. You may not apply direct to Ofcom.

Regards,

The Sanctuary Search team

Contact us

School of Economics
Tel: +44 (0)131 650 8362
Email: study.economics@ed.ac.uk

Related links

School homepage
About the School
Current Students homepage

Copyright © 2013 The University of Edinburgh, All rights reserved.
We send this newsletter to students belonging to the School of Economics

The University of Edinburgh
Old College
South Bridge
Edinburgh, Lothian EH8 9YL
United Kingdom

Add us to your address book

 MailChimp

The University of Edinburgh is a charitable body, registered in Scotland, with registration number SC005336.
unsubscribe from this list | update subscription preferences