

The Hutton Club...

Friday 9th February

Blimey! What with all this 'cash-for-honours' malarkey I'm getting a bit hot under the collar!

Don't worry Mr. Blair... according to the IPCC it is 90% certain that it's human induced climate change that's making you feel warm!

Dr. Martin Kirkbride

'The Loch Lomond Stadial in the Cairngorms: was Sissons or Sugden right?'

4pm – Old Library, Geography

Refreshments stall at the back of the room – lots of exciting produce available. Last minute offer on organic Peerages... 2 for the price of one! Get them while you still can!
