Introduction

This guidance provides information on the Service Request categories available within People and Money Helpdesk for Human Resources, as well as guidance on which categories should be used if you require additional assistance with an HR Policy or Human Resources People and Money User Guide. In the first instance, if you have any questions related to HR, Payroll, Time Card processes or the People and Money system, please search People and Money's in-system guidance - My Knowledge – first. To search in My Knowledge, log in to People and Money, choose 'Help Desk', then 'My Knowledge'. This will give you information on your specific query and role, ranging from user guides to videos.

In accordance with our Human Resources Process User Guides and HR Forms, you may be required to submit a Service Request to complete an HR or Payroll Task. The information below explains which forms should be submitted along with these requests. By selecting the appropriate category, your Service Request will be automatically routed to the appropriate team for processing in the first instance, avoiding any unnecessary delays.

What is a Service Request?

The term Service Request is used to describe a help ticket which is opened within People and Money. The ticket is then sent to the HR Helpline for review and response or sent on to other HR teams or Payroll Services to process as needed.

Wherever feasible, we urge all users who need HR support to submit their Service Requests through the People and Money Helpdesk App, as this route allows you to type the relevant category name as indicated below into the category box and add attachments to the Service Request. This will ensure your Service Request is sent to the correct team in the first instance and dealt with as effectively as possible.

We would also recommend that customers include a meaningful 'Title' in their request. For example, if your request is about a specific payroll, please include this in the title. This will ensure that your request can be prioritised appropriately.

If you do not have access to People and Money, Service Requests can be created via an email to HRHelpline@ed.ac.uk.

Further guidance on raising a Service Request is available within the How to raise and maintain a Service Request Enquiry user guide, which can be found under the 'My Knowledge and Service Requests' header.

If you need support with a Finance related process please contact the Finance Helpline by raising a call in UniDesk, or email finance.helpline@ed.ac.uk.

Service Request Categories

The tables below provide a detailed list of service request categories and their subcategories (e.g. Employee Relations > Appeals) available through the People and Money Helpdesk. The categories are arranged in the same sequence as they appear in People and Money. If you can't find a subcategory that matches your query or request, please use the corresponding main category heading.

| Escalation | This category can be used to raise questions in relation to a Service Request that has not had a timely response. Your first action should be to reply to the email or add a response to your original Service Request. Only if this does not get the required reply should you raise a new Service Request including the SR number of the original request. HR Helpline will then review the original SR and support follow up. We also have a feedback follow up process that is useful for raising concerns after the SR has been resolved. Examples of questions that may be asked under this category include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• I have followed up with a new email/response and have not had a reply to my original SR, can you help?</li><li>• I have a concern that has not been addressed and I would like a follow up?</li></ul> |                     |              |
