

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH
The Royal (Dick) School of Veterinary Studies

Dick Vet Equine 2024 CPD Sessions

Free CPD from a world-leading veterinary education provider.

23 January 2024

The Mare and Foal

18:00 – 21:15 Easter Bush Campus

www.ed.ac.uk/vet/equineCPD

EDINBURGH
extraordinary futures await

The Dick Vet Equine Hospital and Practice invites you to the next in our series of complimentary CPD evenings.

The Mare and Foal: 23 January 2024

This session is aimed at vets who are involved in reproduction work or the treatment of young foals in general practice. You are encouraged to bring along cases relating to mares that struggle to get into foal or the management of neonatal foals for discussion with world-renowned reproduction specialist Dr Niamh Lewis.

Speakers:

Dr Niamh Lewis *BVMS, PhD, DACT, DipECAR, MRCVS**

Louise Cornish BVMS, CertEP, CertAVP, MRCVS

Sophie McCullagh BVSc, MRCVS

Mattie McMaster DVM, MS, DACVS-LA, DECVS, MRCVS

**joining remotely*

Programme:

- |       |  |
|-------|--|
| 18:00 | Registration and coffee  |
| 18:15 | Niamh Lewis: Problem mares, moving away from prophylactic antibiotics  |
| 19:00 | Niamh Lewis and Louise Cornish: case based discussion around problem mares                                   |
| 19:15 | Louise Cornish: The DVEP approach to artificial insemination with chilled and frozen artificial insemination |
| 19:30 | Dinner   |
| 20:00 | Sophie McCullagh: Examining the neonatal foal; what to look out for  |
| 20:45 | Mattie McMaster: Surgery in the neonatal and young foal  |
| 21:15 | Close  |

This session is free of charge for referring practices and veterinarians.

Scan QR code
to landing page

Email EQH@ed.ac.uk to register with your name, practice name, contact details and any dietary requirements.

