

Critical Childhood Studies

GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES

E. Kay M. Tisdall, John M. Davis, Deborah Fry, Kristina Konstantoni, Marlies Kustatscher, M. Catherine Maternowska, Laura Weiner

This book provides an advanced, accessible text for childhood studies, introducing key concepts and drawing on a range of disciplines. Each section includes commentaries from international experts based in Australia, Brazil, the UK, the USA and Zimbabwe. The book contains a range of pedagogical features, from guiding questions to group activities, with further online resources.

Accompanying the book is a companion website:
www.bloomsburyonlineresources.com/critical-childhood-studies

Paperback | 288pp | Sept 2023 | 9781350163201

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. Introduction: Childhood Studies, a Welcoming Field

2. Foundations of Childhood Studies

Chapter Commentary Sarada Balagopalan (Rutgers Camden University, USA)

3. Childhood Studies Meet Other Disciplines

Chapter Commentary Tendai Charity Nhenga (Africa University, Zimbabwe)

4. Childhood Studies Meet Children's Rights Studies

Chapter Commentary Irene Rizzini (International Centre for Research and Policy on Childhood at PUC-Rio, Brazil)

5. Intersectional Perspectives on Childhood

Chapter Commentary Erica Burman (University of Manchester, UK)

6. Childhood Studies in Practice

Chapter Commentary Amanda Third (Western Sydney University, Australia)

7. Conclusion: Using Childhood Studies Concepts to Further Emancipatory Praxis

Order paperback now and save 25% when you enter CCS25* at the checkout

If you need a new textbook for your course, try this one

Available on inspection as print or eBook. Scan the QR code, see Bloomsbury.com or email inspectioncopies@bloomsbury.com with your course details.

*Code valid until 31 Dec 23
Code applies to UK & EU

