

- Safe system of work
  - A way of carrying out the task which results from
  - consideration
  - thought and
  - a systematic examination in order to identify all the hazards.
- It defines safe methods to ensure that hazards are eliminated or risks minimised

Taking into account the dynamic risk assessment already undertaken, consider how the job is to be done in a safe manner including any specific risk controls, specialist equipment, signage and emergency procedures: