

The Uncomfortable Past: Interdisciplinary Approaches to the Spanish Civil War

Tuesday 8 December 2020, 14:00-16:30 (GMT)

<https://eu.bbcollab.com/guest/d5b97b6b74574ca5a5735b607481a12b>

Online Workshop, Conflict Archaeology Research Group

School of History, Classics and Archaeology, University of Edinburgh

Organiser: Dr Manuel Fernández-Götz

14:00-14:30 Matthew Kerry (Stirling University):
“What was the Asturian October?”

14:30-15:00 Xavier Rubio-Campillo (Universitat de Barcelona):
"Data, patterns and narratives: New approaches to the Spanish Civil War using open data visualization"

15:00-15:30 Julius Ruiz (University of Edinburgh):
“Bones of Contention: Digging up the victims of the Paracuellos massacres in 1936”

15:30-16:00 Manuel Fernández-Götz (University of Edinburgh) & Jesús F. Torres-Martínez (IMBEAC): “From ancient to modern conflict: Battlefield archaeology at Monte Bernorio”

16:00-16:30 Open round table