Events Programme

Summer Term 2020

We aim to gather the wives/partners and children of international postgraduate students and post-doctoral workers at the University, provide contacts and make friends.

The Group meets as follows, and you can join at any time:

- ❖ Every Tuesday morning in the University term for Classes in Basic English from 10.00 – 14.30 (from 23 April to 25 June 2019 inclusive).
- ❖ In addition the following Thursday event has been arranged:
- ❖ Thursday 25 June 2020
A Summer Lunch – an opportunity for us to enjoy summertime food.
Children welcome.
Time 12.15 – 15.00 (approx.) 18 Buccleuch Place, EH8 9LN

We offer:

- A central meeting place where you can come each week for a chat, to have light refreshments and make new friends
- Space for your children to enjoy themselves, with helpers delighted to play games and read to them while you take part in an English class or make new contacts
- Information on aspects of living in Edinburgh
- Contact with other international students and their families
- Classes in basic English and several social events

We aim to bring together women post-graduate students as well as the wives, partners and children of post-graduate students and post-doctoral workers in the University of Edinburgh to provide contacts and give your children space to play. We have several university wives who will look after the children, play with them and read to them. We have a little time to relax, have tea and coffee and talk as well as give information about living in Edinburgh.
