Educational Train Journey - GYANODAYA III

Delhi - Amritsar - Ludhiana - Chandigarh - Kurukshetra - Delhi

A train journey to the Western plains of India, over 7 days, venturing into the cultural, economic and agricultural heartland of Punjab.

Along with 600 students from the University of Delhi, students from the United Kingdom, USA and Australia are invited to join the 'College on Wheels' - GYANODAYA III Educational Train Journey Experience, pioneered by the University of Delhi.

An amazing opportunity to gain an understanding of the dynamics of the emerging economy of Punjab, particularly in relation to the entrepreneurial business models in Ludhiana and agricultural marvel in the rural belt. Discover the rich heritage of Amritsar, the holy pilgrimage of the Sikhs, and Chandigarh, planned 20th century city.

Interested?

If you are accepted to attend this trip you will receive £100 bursary to cover the cost of the train journey, meals and accommodation for 2-8 September 2013. You will need to arrange and pay for flights, visas, vaccinations and insurance independently.
