

WAR AND THE CARIBBEAN, 1650-1950
University of Edinburgh, 20 April 2012

Programme

9.30 Welcome and introduction

10.00 War, race and gender

Andrew Wells (University of Edinburgh)

'Haiti, Napoleon, and the making of race in the British Caribbean'

Camillia Cowling (University of Edinburgh)

'Maroons, machos, mambises and madres: gender and notions of slave resistance in the Americas'

Henrice Altink (University of York)

'War and the female franchise in Jamaica'

12.30 Lunch

1.30 War and the economy

Nuala Zahedieh (University of Edinburgh)

'Jamaica and the economic consequences of the War of the Spanish Succession'

Silvia Marzagalli (University of Nice Sophia-Antipolis)

'The French West Indies and the French Wars (1793-1815): a systemic impact on economic hegemony in the Atlantic world'

3.00 Tea

3.30 War and migration

Philip Morgan (Johns Hopkins University and Oxford)

'A tale of two Hamiltons: North American-Caribbean crossings'

Anya Zilberstein (Concordia University, Montreal)

'Jamaicans in and out of Nova Scotia, 1796-1798'

5.00 Tom Devine (University of Edinburgh) will lead closing discussion